

WE DID IT AGAIN!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

In what is becoming a modern day dynasty, the Atlanta Celtics have played in an unprecedented 4th Las Vegas National Championship in eight years winning 3 in 2000, 2003, and 2007 while finishing as runner-ups in 2004. Known as the granddaddy of all grassroots events, winning Vegas is a huge accomplishment. No other program in the country has cemented their place in history like the Celtics of recent memory with 3 first round NBA Draft selections and all have secured endorsements deals through ADIDAS. The future looks brighter than ever with the next generation of kids that are up and coming as some have been featured in various magazines as Rise, SLAM, and on the cover of DIME.
